The Feast of Our Lady of Walsingham 24th September - Walsingham is England's national shrine to Our Lady

The Shrine of Our Lady at Walsingham was established in 1061 when, according to the text of the Pynson Ballad (c 1485), Richeldis de Faverches prayed that she might undertake some special work in honour of Our Lady. In answer to her prayer, the Virgin Mary led her in spirit to Nazareth, showed her the house where the Annunciation occurred, and asked her to build a replica in Walsingham to serve as a perpetual memorial of the Annunciation.

This Holy House was built and a religious community took charge of the foundation. Although we have very little historical material from this period, we know that with papal approval the Augustinian Canons built a Priory (c 1150). Walsingham became one of the greatest Shrines in Medieval Christendom.

In 1538, the Reformation caused the Priory property to be handed over to the King's Commissioners and the famous statue of Our Lady of Walsingham was taken to London and burnt. Nothing remains today of the original shrine, but its site is marked on the lawn in "The Abbey Grounds" in the village.

After the destruction of the Shrine, Walsingham ceased to be a place of pilgrimage. Devotion was necessarily in secret until after Catholic Emancipation (1829) when public expressions of faith were allowed.

In 1896 Charlotte Pearson Boyd purchased the 14th century Slipper Chapel, the last of the wayside chapels en-route to Walsingham, and restored it for Catholic use.

In 1897 by rescript of Pope Leo XIII, the sanctuary of Our Lady of Walsingham was restored with the building of a Holy House as the Lady Chapel of the Catholic Church of the Annunciation, King's Lynn.

The Guild of Our Lady of Ransom, brought the first public pilgrimage to Walsingham on 20th August 1897. Visits to the Slipper Chapel became more frequent, and as the years passed devotion and the number of pilgrimages increased.

The First Meeting for Parents and Catechists is on Thursday 28th September at 7pm in Corpus Christi Church.

A Prayer Composed to prepare for the celebration of the 40th Anniversary of St. Anne's Church in 2018 To be prayed together at the end of the Bidding Prayers every Sunday until Sunday 16th September 2018

Lord Jesus, you gathered disciples to yourself to learn from you and to model their lives on you. The Holy Spirit empowered them to continue your work in the world.

Come upon us Holy Spirit, deepen the faith that you invite us to share and inspire us to become faithful witnesses.

As we begin to develop our lives to pursue to 40 years celebrations of our church, help each one of us to use the gifts that you have given to us to nurture one another to serve our parish community and to live in harmony with each other. Amen.
