Coventry-Irish Oral History Project

Ciaran Davis, the Project Officer for the Coventry-Irish Oral History Project is asking for information this time about the origins of Corpus Christi. An academic article he read stated that voluntary Irish labourers from the Chace hostel built the convent, school and church. He wants to corroborate this story and would love to speak to anyone who was involved with this. Would any parishioners have been involved with this?

If so, please contact Ciaran at:

Ciaran.davis@covirishsoc.org.uk or by phone 07933308109

There is a special request with the brasses in Corpus Christi on Thursday 13th April at 10am. If you want to help in either church please speak with one of our cleaning and grounds team, I am sure that they will be happy to receive an extra pair of helping hands.
